Futuristic animations

Curiosity realized the new flagship store of Hipanda, the phenomenal street brand, opened in Omotesando, Tokyo, as its first store in Japan. It is a journey inside a futuristic space, where the world of digital and analogue fuse into immersive and inclusive total experience.

Tropical flora

B-Loom, a project by Bitossi Home and the Milanese store Funky Table, features the new items of La Tavola Scomposta collection, designed by Paula Cademartori. The objects are inspired by the tropical South American flora, motherland of the designer, reinterpreted in new flamboyant shapes.

5 phases

Ncontemporary presents Sinapsi, the first solo exhibition of the young Italian artist Giulia Maiorano in Milan until 22 May 2019. Curated by Vera Canevazzi, the exhibition focused on the genesis of the artistic creation includes five series of works, three of which never shown before. Giulia Maiorano's research is based on the interaction between work and play, irony and seriousness, the interior and exterior world, the public and private sphere.
